In the spirit of

Viniyoga

This workshop is an introduction to a yoga discipline rooted in the teachings of T.K.V. Desikachar, as inspired by his father Krishnamacharya.

Breath is the guiding principle of this tradition - being mindful of how we breathe, how we feel the breath, and how we coordinate breath with physical movement. The emphasis is on bringing body, breath and mind into unison promoting strength, reducing stress, and restoring calmness and clarity. The aim is to adapt this discipline to personal yoga practice.

Kelly Cade has been living and practicing yoga in the Toronto area for 15 years, and has been studying the teaching methods of the Krishnamacharya lineage for the past 6 years.
